

Dragonfly (Anisoptera)

- Dragonflies are insects
- They can hover like a helicopter
- They lay their eggs in water
- A group of dragonflies is called a swarm
- There are 5,000+ known species
- They can fly very fast (30+ miles per hour!)

Did you know..?

Dragonflies can move each of their four wings independently.